

People News – Hatches, Matches and Moves

Edited by GERALDINE MORRIS

Robert Audino

Henry commented, 'These are exciting times for the practise and with Robert joining us we will be able to offer a high quality service in two of the biggest commercial centres in Surrey. We are determined not just to ride out the recession, but to actually beat it !'

Surrey

Crisp & Co

The niche Guildford based firm of Crisp & Co have expanded their family team with the appointment of Robert Audino, who joins them from Howell-Jones LLP, and the opening of a second office in Kingston town centre.

Robert, who has been practising family law for over 20 years (the last 10 spent working in Surrey) and is a former Treasurer of Resolution: Surrey Region, will work from the Guildford office whilst Henry Crisp, the firm's managing partner, will run the Kingston office.

Poole

Natalie Gamble and Louisa Ghevaert have launched the UK's first specialist fertility law firm, Gamble and Ghevaert LLP. Specialising in donor conception, surrogacy, fertility treatment and parenting law for alternative family structures, Gamble and Ghevaert LLP will provide cutting edge advice to clients from all over the UK and abroad (more information at www.gambleandghevaert.com). Natalie is well known for her work in this specialist area of law and has been a prominent commentator on the recently enacted Human Fertilisation and Embryology Act 2008. Natalie and Louisa also acted in High Court international surrogacy case Re X and Y while at Lester Aldridge, where they move from.

Natalie Gamble

Louisa Ghevaert